Article 2 Section 2. Qualifications for Classes of Members.

A. Active. A Sound Mixer whose achievements are deemed sufficient to be recommended for membership in the Cinema Audio Society. Eligibility for this classification shall be determined solely by the guidelines in Article 2, Section 3.

Article 2 Section 3. Admission to membership.

The following steps and procedure shall be taken for the admission to active membership in the Cinema Audio Society:

A. As a minimum requirement to qualify for active membership, an applicant must have had no less than five (5) years experience as a professional sound mixer in motion pictures or television. The applicant must produce proof of said period of time, in the form of a list of confirmable Credits. The list shall be verified by the Board of Directors of the Cinema Audio Society. Upon their findings, the applicant shall pass or fail this requirement.

B. An applicant must be sponsored by two (2) active members in good standing.

C. Applications for membership shall be in writing, signed by the applicant, and submitted to the membership committee, together with a payment in an amount equal to the initiation fee, current dues and assessments.

D. Upon recommendation of the applicant by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board of Directors, his or her name shall be published in the CAS Quarterly. If thirty (30) days after publication no written objections have been received, the applicant shall be accepted to membership.

E. In the event that written objections are received, it shall be the sole discretion of the Board of Directors to pass upon such objections and, if found to be unsubstantiated or prejudiced, the applicant shall be accepted to membership.

F. If applicant is refused membership, any payment submitted by the applicant shall be refunded.

Article 3 Section 1. Active members.

Only Active members in good standing shall have the right to put the letters "CAS" after their name on screen credits. Only Active members in good standing shall have the right to vote upon the business of the corporation. Each Active member shall have one vote and neither cumulative voting nor proxy voting shall be allowed.

If it is determined that you do not qualify for Active membership, and would like to become an Associate member, please check here  Any overpayment will be refunded.
